Advertisements.

SUNDAY, AUGUST 6, 1916.

and published dails by The Tribune Association. a fork corporation. Orden Reid. President; G. Vemor at large will be quite willing to leave the at large will be quite willing to leave the sales, Travaires. Address. Tribune Building. 154 a Street. New York. Telephone. Esekman 2009. IPTION RATES.—By Mail, Postage Paid, outsid

EIGN RATES.
AND SUNDAY.
DALLY AND SUNDAY.

TEM One march.

NDAY ONLY.

25 One Per DALLY ONLY. One SUNDAY ONLY.

upon request. No red tape, no quibbling. We ness?

Arbitrate or Fail.

representatives of the Amalgamated Aspleting the job.

The chaise-longue type of woman has in the prison camps by the German stand-line the prison camps by the German stand-line the prison camps by the German stand-line the multiverse. representatives of the Amalgamated As- pleting the job.

vice as nearly uninterrupted as the ex-cannot make an overwhelming demonstration of ability to paralyze the surface, elevated and subway systems they will inevitably have to be satisfied with obtaining something less than the full extent of their demands.

It is idle to believe that they will be the use of the police and, if necessary, sea. the militia to subdue them in their riot. As a sample of the rigorous seafaring lot of the workers must desire to see account for a little matter of masts in insufficient, that the men have no place account for a little matter of masts in insufficient, that the men have no place account for a little matter of masts in insufficient, that the men have no place account for a little matter of masts in insufficient, that the men have no place account for a little matter of masts in insufficient, that the men have no place account for a little matter of masts in insufficient, that the men have no place account for a little matter of masts in insufficient, that the men have no place account for a little matter of masts in insufficient, that the men have no place account for a little matter of masts in insufficient, that the men have no place account for a little matter of masts in insufficient, that the men have no place account for a little matter of masts in insufficient, that the men have no place account for a little matter of masts in insufficient, that the men have no place account for a little matter of masts in insufficient, that the men have no place account for a little matter of masts in insufficient, that the men have no place account for a little matter of masts in insufficient, that the men have no place account for a little matter of masts in insufficient, that the men have no place account for a little matter of masts in insufficient, that the men have no place account for a little matter of masts in insufficient, that the men have no place account for a little matter of masts in insufficient, that the men have no place account for a little matter of masts in insufficient, that the men have no place account for a little matter of masts in insufficient, that the men have no place account for a little matter of masts in insufficient, that the men have no place account for a little matter of matte lines here are ill-paid by comparison with sailed a brig out upon his printed page swer rollcalls outside, often in the rain," In even a prostitute's soul what meansthose in many large cities, and they enwith the observation that "her main and and that many necessities such as soap are Well, something not measured by intellect! dure the hardships common to their busi-mizzen mast were not visible." Quite not provided, and the misery of these un-And when that man speaks, Bill, we listen! ness in aggravated form. They deserve likely as to the mizzen, it is to be fortunate victims of German savagery can center working conditions. Any means and those the fore and main. That is a calculated, for as Mr. Gerard says "the they take to obtain a better lot, short of typical landlubber blunder, and quite as Imperial authorities, after nearly two Jesus, who died a death of shame violence, undoubtedly will be supported by inexcusable as the marvellous yacht in a years of war, have certainly had ample Between two thieves once on Calvary a large part of the public. The traction much displayed magazine illustration of time to provide accommodation for the Or it may be Burns, or Masefeld-who officials, spurred into generosity by the the late Christy-Gibson vintage, which prisoners." gravity of the situation, announce publicly their willingness to meet employes of the companies in conference. That should icism of the "Athenæum" writer. Sir Gil- with the poor material at their disposal to be done. transit officialdom, to swallow a little singing: pride and compromise their differences. In O you A B sailor-man, this course they will find ready to aid them Wet your whistle while you can, this course they will find ready to aid them Wet your whistle while you can, the Mayor, the Public Service Commis- For the piping of the bugle calls you by way of explanation, the following nosion, the business men of the city. Neither side in this lamentable quarrel is an ir- 'Ome-'ome-'omeresistible force; neither can afford to con- Calls you on to your fo'c'stle 'ome. sider itself an immovable body. Both Now the year of the action is 1798 and will be hurt to a greater extent than the poem is Kipling's. Perhaps Sir Gilsane, calm wisdom warrants if they in- bert Parker thought Mr. Kipling was filchsist on fighting to the bitter end. quate transit service. It will not tolerate The critic is altogether justified in his notice posted in one of the working camps: With peonies, and tinkling pagedas, cheaper, in the long run, for the comtinue able to do their duty to the public. Fair Spanish Ladies!" Why, indeed?

No Hurry for Reapportionment.

an extraordinary session of the Legislat- in "Captain Margaret," his scafaring ure to make an apportionment to replace novel. The book is ancient in atmosphere the unconstitutional one made at the regular session is wise. There is no great puts in the mouths of his sailor men: "Oh public emergency to meet. So far as the mommer!" "Gee, I can sing alright, alpeople are concerned, an election under the right," "And your wife's a peach, I apportionment of 1907 can be held with as guess"—all of which do smack a little much justice as under any new apportion- highly of a Sixth Avenue bar, we confess. ment which might be made at an extra But there are various ways of producing session. The individuals concerned with an ancient atmosphere without sticking the issue are the political managers of the strictly to ancient speech, and Mr. Masevarious parties. An extraordinary ses- field's transmutation of eighteenth cen- To kiss. Such arms-such hands I never And when I came into my garden. sion would cost a large sum of money-too tury British into twentieth century Amerimuch to spend, in the state's present finan- can is not to be narrowly or easily discial condition, for the making of new dis- missed. In the same volume there is this Fain would I be of service say something. tricts to suit politicians who happen to be description of the ship The Broken Heart: Between the tears, that would be comfort. But I have seen many Autumns in the ascendant. legislators who hoped, by new grouping of she would have looked ungainly, had territory, to map out "sure" districts or to New Nork Tribune | territory, to map out "sure" districts or to eliminate rivals will arouse the sympathy of discerning voters, of course. But sym-First to Last-the Truth: News-Editorials- pathy is easier to bestow than dollars. The Legislature of 1917 may prove more competent to make a legal apportionment than the Legislature of 1916. The public

The Lost Art of Walking.

Can you walk? Of course your feet can pull you around a few steps at a time. You progress very comfortably from your bed to your tub, from tub to breakfast, from breakfast to the elevator, from the left in a machine-run city life. But if all Entered at the Postoffice at New York as Second Class the wheels stop running (as a good many of them are threatening to do just now) You can purchase merchandise advertised in can you swing out like a genuine biped THE TRIBUNE with absolute safety-for and march the five or ten miles a day if dissatisfaction results in any case THE necessary to get you to and from busi-TRIBUNE guarantees to pay your money back necessary to get you to and from busi-make good promptly if the advertiser does not. The Plattsburgh rookies could. Our admirable dancers could-or if they could not march the length of Broadway they could fox-trot it, at any rate. A very It goes without saying that the street-car men of this city are entirely within getting the art of walking so rapidly that their rights in joining a labor union, a ten-mile jaunt would be almost as arwhether the incentive to organize themwhether the incentive to organize themselves comes from their own number or selves comes from their own number or from "aliens," as Mr. Shonts terms the followed and the automobile is just comfollowed and the auto Employes. Moreover, if the men, thus practically disappeared. But the chaise- and, few believe that such a step would inunionized, desire to strike for higher longue man is rapidly filling her place. sure any improvement in the treatment of wages and better working conditions that Only, his spot for reclining is not an Em- Germany's victims. also is entirely within their rights. pire couch but an automobile sent. It is a A more promising proposal, backed by Taunting the world whose agony You cause-But the public, too, has rights. It is not frightful bore, but he can still ambulate some influential people, is to endeavor to Crying with the lips of Milo still the same only the right but the duty of the street all the way from his breakfast table to secure the exchange of the civilian prison- Insult-"Who art Thou, to imprison me?" only the right but the duty of the street the twelve-cylinder car. There he leans ers without too much counting of heads. Descends a marmur from the Shadowy Tree: the twelve-cylinder car. There he learns ers without too much counting of heads. Immense boughs whisper back, "Humanity!"

back, surveying the world through a steer.

Germany has only about 4,000, while Eng-And innumerable leaves, "Humanity!" ing wheel and bringing up such parts of land has nearly 20,000, but there are many igencies of their situation will permit. it as he desires in nearer view by merely who would be glad to give back all the And on this the public will insist, what- waggling an ankle and bending an elbow Germans if they could rescue their own ever the effect may be on the fortunes of once and again. A demoralizing life it countrymen. "The Spectator's" suggesthe strikers or the operating companies. is we lead, and demoralizing to the legs tion is "to tell the Germans that if our The fact the streetcar workers will do above all else. Shall they presently relax, civilian prisoners were all returned, we "Lee, I don't like this gutter stuff well to ponder before the calling out of turn flabby and waste away to a rudimen- would send them back as many of their You modern poets pull; I think well to ponder before the calling out of turn hand, and turn hand, men goes any further. If they cannot the up tary state comparation were and above the four thouse Your feeling crude, your verses rought the transportation lines of this city their appendices and tonsils? We hope not sand as could be induced, without positive Your sense of beauty on the blink. strike will be a partial failure. If they Better a car strike every year than any coercion, to return to their native land." Now you take Tennyson . . ." I took,

About the most dangerous task you can set yourself if you are a novelist or a poet is writing of ships and sailors and the sea unless, like Joseph Conrad, you are fully had little or no effect. The conditions at had little or no effect. The conditions at Carl the able thus to paralyze the city's transpor-qualified as an able-bodied seaman and tation system. Such a condition would be have served your time below decks. Other inc. It is or Mr. Correct once Why should we worry if Jared Hill by our Ambassador at Berlin are shockintolerable. Manifestly they cannot do it subjects have their technique and catchy men ready to step into the places left vamen ready to step into the places left vapartment score sale always dazzle us with cant by strikers. And the moment that in our magazines always dazzle us with
To quote from his letter to Mr. Page in When we find a screech-owl dead on the the strikers attempt to do by violence their grasp of their duties, a grasp far exwhat they have a perfect right to attempt to do peaceably, they become lawbreakers, directly and specifically violators of the laws. They arraign themselves as a laws. They arraign themselves as a fiction. There is not the same hard mass class against the interests of the public as of irrefutable fact, established by the ages, a whole, and they justify by that course that confronts the author pushing out to critic which the poor landlubber faces off The streetcar men have grievances soundings take a correspondent of the which any person sympathetic with the London "Athenæum." He starts off fairly better pay; they deserve fairer and de- observed, for a brig has but two masts, be imagined. This brutality is evidently May be Villon (a thief, by the way), or may bowled along in sprightly fashion despite In some camps the men have no comthe complete absence of a main sheet.

*ome-

ing an old refrain; but in view of the The public will and must have ade-modern verbiage that hardly seems likely. the concluding sentence of the following I saw a garden violence and rioting. It will be better and complaint that the chanty is vulgar and panies to improve working conditions Why, he exclaims, did not Sir Gilbert use than to stand the cost of a prolonged a real sea song: "Admiral Benbow-Oh! fight, and it will be better for the men We sailed to Virginia and thence to to take what they can get by arbitration Fayal," "Captain Kidd," "The Arethusa," than to force the fighting. If both sides "Sank Her in the Lowlands Low," "High are sensible, they'll compromise and con-Barbaree" or "Farewell and Adieu to You

There is no catching John Masefield in landlubberly slips. But the same critic if they can only get their helpless country. Stained her rain-blue dress like tears. Governor Whitman's decision not to call protests against his use of American slang

"She was a small ship, built of aro-The disappointment of politicians and matic cedar, and like all wooden ships not her great beam, and the height of her after-works, given her a majesty, something of the royal look which all ships have in some proportion. The virtue of man had been busy about her. An artist's heart, hungry for beauty, had seen the idea of her in dream; she had her counterpart in the kingdom of vision. There was a spirit in her, as there is in all things fashioned by the soul of man; not a spirit of beauty, not a spirit of strength, but the spirit of her builder, a Peruvian Spaniard. She had the impress of her builder in her, a mournful state, a kind of battered grandeur, a likeness to a type of manhood. There was in her a beauty not quite achieved, as though, in the husk of the man, the butterfly's wings were not quite free. There was in her a strength that was clumsy; almost the strength of one vehement from fear. She came from a man's soul, stamped with his defects."

When you are once aboard such a ship, sweet and salt and personable, you will No more out of its shade to be released. travel where she wills, slang or no slang. The forest tract knows no philosophy;

Germany's Prison Camps.

Though experience had clearly demon- But in delirium, still defiantly, much for the unfortunate soldiers at Ger- "Fine! fire away! bring us to bookmany's mercy, but civilians at least might Lest we forget, lest we forget!" be relieved, and the plan proposed by "The About the most dangerous task you can Spectator" is the more likely to gain gen- "But seriously," Bill returned, -unless, like Joseph Conrad, you are fully Ruhleben as described in a recent report Why should we worry if Jared Hill ing. It is, as Mr. Gerard says, "intoler- His jim-jams through a rolling mill?" able" that men "should be herded six toaffairs in the hay lofts was even worse. "What do we care, Bill?-What do we care "For example, in Barrack No. 2 onehalf section of the loft is at the centre about ten feet from the floor from the highest point, and the loft slopes downward, so that at the sides it is only four and a half feet above the floor: the floor of this part of the loft is about ten metres twenty by twelve metres eighty. The beds are so close together that they touch. In this confined space sixty-four men live."

Add to this that there is but one sma igh by calling Sir Gilbert Parker to window, that the heating arrangements are plaints to make, and are evidently on good A shade more carping is the second crit- terms with their keepers, who do their best When Masefield can write 'Where are last was daytime, so they were resting. All work Wheeler's car was shot through, the slatwhere are last was daytime, so they were muddy, unshaved, bert Parker in the same volume sets a local write was daytime, so they were muddy, unshaved, bert Parker in the same volume sets a local write was daytime, so they were muddy, unshaved, is night work. They were muddy, unshaved, bert Parker in the same volume sets a local write was daytime, so they were muddy, unshaved, is night work. They were muddy, unshaved, bert Parker in the same volume sets a local write was daytime, so they were muddy, unshaved, is night work. They were muddy, unshaved, bert Parker in the same volume sets a local write was daytime, so they were muddy, unshaved, is night work. They were muddy, unshaved, bert Parker in the same volume sets a local write was daytime, so they were muddy, unshaved, is night work. They were muddy, unshaved, bert Parker in the same volume sets a local write was daytime, so they were muddy, unshaved, is night work. They were muddy, unshaved, bert Parker in the same volume sets a local write was daytime, so they were muddy, unshaved, is night work. They were muddy, unshaved, bert Parker in the same volume sets a local write was daytime, so they were muddy, unshaved, is night work. They were muddy, unshaved, bert Parker in the same volume sets a local write. Sir Gilwith the poor material at their disposal to year's snows?'

I promise to let you go on blaspheming. It was the delivered by the same was not the delivered by the same was not the property of the property to do as they please in many places. One Gotch of the American investigators was asked is the peer of Yseult or Elaine! I might to inquire into the case of a sick man who Say more but-I'm tired. Have you got a tice, signed by the commandant at Wittenberg, was pointed out to him:

"Notice is hereby given, that on refusal to work, the guard have been directed in the future, if occasion arises, to make use of their weapons,"

An Unteroffizier's humanity is shown in When I looked into your eyes,

"The guards are especially enjoined to energetically keep the prisoners at work. Should the attitude of the prisoner demand the use of the weapon this should be employed without regard to consequences. In the first place, the bayonet only is to be employed."

With such conditions as these in mind, is wonderful that people are willing to en- And as she drew out her hand, ertain almost any conditions of exchange The water-drops dripping from it men out of the hands of the Germans?

Bereaved.

The best thing I ever did," was James Whit, hilley's own rating of this poem of his, ac-ing to a letter from Mr. Reginald wight Iman recently printed to The Tribune; et me come in where you sit weeping, ay, Seeking my footsteps, et me, who have not any child to die, Veen with you for the little one whose love They will be covered and gone. I have known nothing of.

The little arms that slowly, slowly loosed Their pressure round your neck; the hands In the cloud-gray mornings you used

May I not weep with you?

But ah! so sadder than yourselves am I,

JAMES WHITCOMB BILEY.

LINES TO A CERTAIN NATION.

(From The Westminster Gazette.) (Written during the Battle of Verdun.) Milo, the wrestler oiled, whom victories-Six times the Pythian, six times the Olympian-crowned, Could shoulder a bullock, run the stadium round.

And in a day devour the beast with ease. Thrice-happy, too, in philosophic strength, Led sumptuous ladies paths to Hera's shrine And crushed his fellow Greeks of Sybaris, Haling their treasure to Crotona. In fine, This subtlest of protagonists at length Taught his folk force was all, and all force his.

Cresting the Sila's granites a strange Tree (A boulder wedged its cloven trunk) to sea Spreads fimbs of shade, westward, and north, south, east.

Rifted and wounded, long, long had it stood Mysterious, but a kindly fortitude . . And Milo's pride of thew, restless, on edge, Heaved out the boulder, made himself the wedge, Thrust the gap wider, the old wound in creased.

Until the great bole writhed, sprang, caught

Madness, and Sila's wolves approached at last . . .

But to You (whose name

To You light-headed with your own applause

HERBERT TRENCH.

The Parting.

snow?

Nothing; unless in its life we share-And we share so little in life, I know. 'Queens have died, young and fair' . . . we weep

At the image of fair youth fallen . . Good God, Fair youth has fallen, heap upon heap, And it isn't our tears, Bill, that color the

But here and there since the world began Some hearts have ached that young queens

Whose great heart aches for the fate of all

His name

Or Masters, or"-

"Rubbish, my boy! you're dreaming!

. Masters . . . Hell!

Good night!" LEE WILSON DODD.

Chinoiseries. (Prom "Others.")

And round-arched bridges Over still lakes.

A woman sat beside the water In a rain-blue, silken garment. She reached through the water To pluck the crimson plonies Beneath the surface. But as she grasped the stems.

They jarred and broke into white-green ripples,

Falling Snow.

The snow whispers about me. And my wooden clogs Leave holes behind me in the snow But no one will pass this way

I heard the herons flying: My silken outer-garment Trailed over withered leaves. A dried leaf crumbles at a touch, With herons blowing like smoke Across the sky.

Louis Raemaekers in "De Telegraaf," of Amsterdam.

THE AMERICANS AT VERDUN

By ARTHUR GLEASON.

have to be done over again."

FIRST ARTICLE. lecisive battle of the war. So are the artist. It was he who once started on a trip their ears. of the American Ambulance Field Service rived on the other side to find his friend in New Hampshire hillside when the match are working from ten up to twenty hours of trouble for his disappearance. the day bringing in their comrades, the Through the side of Pierce's cont, just at thing of mounds and pits, blown up and One hundred and twenty the pocket, and just over the heart, I saw a dug out by a four months' rain of heavy of our cars and 120 of our boys in the field and slivers of explosive shell. July 1 in a motor car driven by a French brown leather wallet. Through one flap the hundred fervid and humorous comments duke. Up through thousands of transports, same shrapnel bullet had penetrated. To-lance runs of the war. Barber, of Toledo, Ohio, was shot through an aeroplane burst into flames. As it fell, it window, where he leaves him lying motionsurgeon had just taken out, the second piece had shredded the smoke away. Militaire.

Verdup, were the boys and their cars. It man, and has a pleasant drawl.

ranked next to soldiers of the line.

of life. There was a tired but victorious pleasant stir and fulness of summer were vice in fifty years offered to them. Let them sense they carried, of men that had done coming down the air.

streak of red ran across the bridge.

up by shrapnel. Now the big $600 job will battery cleared its throat and spoke. In the tary Commission.

fields beyond us other batteries played con-

The French are massed at Verdun in the This young man is Waldo Pierce, the tinuously. Some of the men put cotton in Americans. Our little group of ambulance to Europe with a friend, but didn't like the We ran through a devastated wood. drivers have been called from the other first meal, so jumped overboard and swam green forest has been raised by high expoints of the 350-mile line, and five sections back. He sailed by the next boat, and ar- plosive into dead stumps, and looks like a June 25. Several have been touched. A where else, say at the elbow, it would have their own tails. They push their pert little dozen of the cars are shot up with shrapnel been all right. But this neat little hole just noses up a hill, where the road is lined with at the vital spot is conventional stuff. It famous heavy makes, stalled and wrecked. Will Irwin and I went up with Piatt looks like the barn door, and five yards They refuse to stay out of service.

There on the hillside, to the west of anywhere," Pierce went on. He is a Maine impossible routes, where four wheels and a lying around. One of the boys was reperted as he knell before a tire. The boys as mud on all the cars, and blood on the inner side of one car. For ten nights they have been making one of the hottest ambutance have been playing in luck. A dozen fatalities with charming bits of water view and green laws and immaculate white fronts. The city reminded me of the victim whom a prothe four months, and they stood up to it.

the back. The shell fragment tore a long, left a trail of black smoke, funnel shaped, jagged rent in his khaki army coat, with a and always at the point of that funnel the Verdun lay seemingly dead inside the range circle of blood around the rip, entered the bright spark, and at the heart of that spark of German fire. But once the guns are back and lay against the lung and stomach. a man burning to death. The spark descended forced back the city will spring into life. The car was shattered. The next man found rather slowly, with a spiralling movement, him. The wrecked car still stands on the and trailing the heavy smoke. It burned road with a dead man in it, the wounded brightly all the way to the horizon line, cellent rations which the field service prosoldier whom he was bringing back. We saw where it seemed to continue for a moment, vides for its workers. We were sitting with Barber at the field hospital. He had been like a setting sun on the earth's rim. Then operated on for the second time. He showed it puffed out, and only the smoke in the sky values of rhythm in prose when the boys us the quarter inch of metal which the was left. In another moment the light wind shouted to us from the next field. An aero-

This section needed no initiation. They get to the Etat Major and report ourselves, escape, as a bird darks for a worm. The had long served at Hartmanns Weilerkopf So, after watering the car and shaking hands balloon opened up into-flame and fell through in the Alsace fighting, and of their number all around, we started off, and straightway thirty seconds, burning with a dull red. Hall was killed. This experience at Verdun the rear left tire went flat, and its successor The hours we had just spent of work and is a continuation of the dangerous, brilliant went flat, and for the third time it went flat, excitement seemed to me fairly crowded, but work they have carried on for sixteen So we crawled to a village at midnight, and they were mild in the life of the field sermonths. Their men are veterans in service, laid by for repairs, which ate up the next day. vice. They pound away overtime and take though youngsters in years. By their At 3 a. m. we rose. There was no dressing ugly hazards and preserve a boy's humer though cars and the blood they have to be done, as we had rested in our clothes. More young men of the same stuff are needed spilled they have earned the right to be We ran out past the city of Verdun on the at once for this American Ambulanca Field road going east to Fort T --- . Wheat was Service. The country is full of newly made They gave me the impression of having ripening to the full crop in a hundred fields college graduates, wondering what they can

Then on a sudden the famous Tier de Bar- New York.

"Pretty stagey, isn't it?" he explained. "If rabbits. They dip into an obus hole, bounce service are in the sector, under constant shell fire. One was grievously wounded on that been a ragged, irregular hole, some-

There is a certain Detroit manufacturer Will Irwin and I went up with Plate away.

Andrew, head of the field service, to see the "And this is worse yet," he added, as he who has a large and legitimate advertiseyoung Americans at work. We left Paris on took out from the inner breast pocket a hundred ferrid and hundred ferrid hundred ferrid and hundred ferrid hundred ferrid hundred ferrid hundred ferrid hundred ferrid hundred ferr thousands of horses and tens of thousands of the same shrapnel bullet had penetrated. To be will have a publicity pamphlet which will outlive "A Message to Garcia." For this job of the Jitneys is more than carrying orders: it is bringing more than carrying orders:

motor were never supposed to go. We rode back through the partially de-It was on that run that William Notley We were looking west, and as we looked fessional hypnotist displays in a shop less in the trance for exhibition purposes.

plane was dipping over an anchored sausage o be removed. He has won the Medaille It was 5 o'clock in the afternoon, and we shaped observation balloon. The aeroplane had been coming from Paris at full tilt to had marked its victim, which could not been through one of the great experiences about us. All the birds were singing. The make of their lives. Here is the choicest serapply to William R. Hereford, 14 Wall Street,

As we sat on the grass and looked out rage broke out—the deadly barrier of fire Even a jitney wears out. Bump it in the on a sky full of observation balloons and that crumbles a line of trenches as a child carburetor enough times, rake it with shrapaeroplanes, a very good looking young man pokes in an ant hill! The fire that covers an nel, and it begins to lose its first freshness. walked up. Only one thing about his make- advance and withers an enemy attack. Here Three more full sections of cars should be up was marred, and that was his nose-a was what I had been waiting for through given. One hundred and fifty thousand doltwenty-one months of war. I had caught lars is needed. Funds can be sent in care "Shrapnel," he said, as he saw me looking. snatches of it at a dozen points along the of Lee Higginson & Co., bankers, Boston. And it seems a pity, too. I spent $600 on line. I had eaten luncheon by a battery near (Such subscriptions marked "For the Field that nose, just before I came over here. Dixmude, but they were lazy, throwing a shell Service.") The work over here is in charge They burned it, cauterized it, wired it, knifed or two only for each course. But here, just of Platt Andrew, who used to teach political it, and pronounced it a thorough job. And before the sun came up, 200 feet from us, a economy in Harvard, was later Director of as soon as it was cleaned up, it came over battery of twelve 75s fired continuously for the Mint, Assistant Secretary of the Treathere into powder and dust and got messed awenty minutes. Just over the hill another ury and secretary of Senator Aldrich's Mone-